Stormy Rival

Built in 1980 by Southern boat builders for Peter Brett the designer of the Rival 34, Stormy Rival is currently laid up ashore and has been little used.

The Rival 34 is a classic cruiser known for her good sea keeping qualities, long distance cruising and Ocean racing.

This version has had most of the headlining replaced. In 2012/13 the navigation station was upgraded with a new radio equipped with AIS, linked to a lap top to give a large display chart plotter.

The last available survey was carried out in 2012.

The saloon has a navigation table to starboard with a seat. Saloon heating is from a Taylors parafin heater mounted on the saloon bulkhead. The large saloon table has drop leaves. All internal joinery is to a high standard and the majority of the headlining has been replaced.

There are five berths in total in two cabins, two berths in the fore cabin, two single berths and a quarter berth in the saloon.

The separate heads compartment is situated to port and is equipped with a Lavac toilet and fold away wash basin. opposite there is a wet locker.

The galley has a Taylors paraffin cooker with twin hob and oven, a sink and cold box.
