Amanda Jane

The Beneteau Antares 620 is well known as the ideal boat for fishing and cruising. With her wide aft deck she gives space for fishing, and offers the protection of the pilot house together with comfortable accommodation. With her efficient Volvo Penta engine she is cheap to run. The ample after deck space accommodates rod fishermen with ease, with stowage for rods on deck.

She comes complete with road trailer.

This Beneteau Antares 620 is ideal for the fisherman. Plenty of room on the aft deck, There is a sink in the pilothouse for processing the catch - plenty to offer.

The engine is the impressive Volvo Penta MD 20, giving a reliable cruising speed of 11 knots and a maximum speed of 16 knots. The fuel tank capacity of 100 litres gives a good range.

Instrumentation is mounted in the pilothouse at the helm position. The helm position provides good visibility all round.

There are two berths in the saloon, separated by hatches from the pilot house. There is a Jabasco sea toilet under the berths. There is a flat screen TV and ample storage

There is a sink and drainer plus microwave
